Official Vote

Mr. Halderman, private Secretary of the Governor, informs us that the following is the official aggregate vote of the whole Territory, given at the late election for Delegate to Congress.

Whitfield	2258
Wakarusa	248
Flemcken	205
Chapman	165
Blood	1
Gen. Pomeroy	2
Wm. Lloyd Garrison	1

Whitfield's majority over Flemcken, 1953, over all his competitors 1885.

Total vote 2831.

Gen. Whitfield ran as a national Democrat in favor of the compromise of 1850, and the principles of the Nebraska Kansas bill. He is the very man for the times.

Extra Copies.

The demand for extra copies of the Herald has been so great the last three or four weeks, we have been unable to supply the demand. We shall hereafter, issue two hundred additional copies weekly, and shall increase that if the demand increases. Our subscription list is rapidly increasing. In six months we expect to issue a weekly edition of at least two thousand and upwards.

Thanks to our friends at St. Joseph for their interest in the Herald, as manifested by their liberality in subscribing.

Mr. Withers, landlord of the Hotel at the town of De Kalb, has promised us a club of twenty subscribers at that place. Thus the work goes bravely on.

From every quarter of the Union we have continued calls for the Herald.

THE ELECTION.—We have not been able to obtain the full official returns of the election for a Delegate to Congress, but enough is known to make it certain that Gen. Whitfield, the pro slavery candidate is elected. His majority it is believed will be near two thousand, distancing all his competitors. We will publish the official vote in our next.

The Steamer Australia passed down the river to day, having been as high as Weston. The river is full of floating ice, and there has been no crossing for three days until yesterday. We can expect no more boats up this season. But in the spring there will be a general rush of emigrants.

The Salt Lake mail was attacked by the Sioux Indians near Fort Laramie, on the 16th Nov. and rifled of all its contents, amounting to about $105,000. Three men were killed.

Congress met last Monday, President's Message was read, Senator Atchison resigned as speaker of the Senate.

Squatter Meeting.

Pursuant to public notice given, the Delaware Squatter Association, met at Leavenworth on the 2d day of December, 1854.

In the absence of the President and Secretary, A. Payne, Associate Justice, took the Chair, and on motion, G. B. Pantan was appointed Secretary, pro tem. The Chairman stated the object of the meeting was to elect a President and Secretary, occasioned by the resignation of the President and removal of the Secretary.

On motion the meeting proceeded to the election of a President and Secretary, and R. R. Rees was elected President and S. D. Picher, Secretary.

On motion of D. Dodge, a committee was appointed to examine into the propriety of amending the resolutions passed on the 4th of November, 1854.

The Chair appointed C. M. Burgess, A. Macaulay and F. Shannon said committee. The committee after retiring for a short time, returned and made the following report:

Your committee appointed to examine into the propriety of amending the first and second resolutions passed at a meeting of the Squatter Association on the 4th day of November, 1854, have had the same under consideration and would ask leave to make the following report; and would recommend the following amendment: Strike out the preamble, the first and second resolutions, and insert the following:

1st. Resolved, That we recognize as a valid claim, all such claims as were recognized as valid under the Squatter Laws of the Delaware Squatters prior to the 29th day of November, 1854.

2nd. Resolved, That after the expiration of three months from this date, all lands within the Delaware purchase not occupied as a home, shall be subject to be claimed by any person who may become an actual settler.

3rd. Resolved, That all rights which have accrued under the resolutions of the 4th of November, 1854, shall remain as valid as though these resolutions had never passed.

Which, after being read, was unanimously adopted.

Ordered that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Kansas Herald.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

A. PAYNE, Chm.

G. B. PANTON, Sec'y.

We learn that a preliminary examination of Leakey, who was charged with the murder of Henry Davis, was held on the day of election, came up, before Judge Elmire, Associate Justice of Kansas Territory at the Shawnee Mission on Wednesday Dec. 6th 1854.

The interest felt in this the second trial, held in Kansas, attracted a large crowd. Many witnesses were examined, but we forbear giving their testimony lest it might prejudice the case on both sides. A. J. Isaac, Esq., U. S. Atty opened the case on the part of the prosecution, and John A. Halderman, Esq., of Leavenworth City, followed for the defense—both speeches were characterized by a display of much legal ability. Messrs Brady and Hutchinson followed for prosecution and Wood and Clark closed on part of defense. The argument of counsel having closed the Judge decided the case not liable and remanded prisoner to the charge of C. B. Donaldson, Deputy Marshall for safe keeping till the first session of the U. S. District Court. The prisoner has been placed in the Guard house at Fort Leavenworth for safe keeping.

Since the above was in type we learn that John A. Halderman and M. C. Conway, Esqs., have made application to Chief Justice Leconte, for a writ of Habeas Corpus, alleging that the detention of Kibbee is unlawful.

WHITFIELD.—Messrs. Chapman, Halderman, Gray, and Swigley, have laid out a town at the Lower Crossing of Soldier Creek, on Kansas river, and named it Whitfield, after the Squatter's friend, Gen. Whitfield, Delegate elect.

FOR THE KANSAS HERALD.

To the Elm Tree, at Leavenworth, under the shade of which, the first number of the Herald was issued.

Thou stand'st a lonely monument,
Of many a passing year,
And the wild and savage haunt
Of prowling wolf and deer.

The stamp of age is on thy brow,
The storms have o'er thee passed,
And many a long, long year ago,
The savage round thee pressed.

The dark Missouri's troubled flow
Has washed thine ancient root
Since that dread period long ago
When war-cry answered whoop.

Do'st thou remember that dread day,
When the Missouri tribe
Met Spanish champions in the fray
And mortal combat tried?

When blood flowed freely as the stream
That rolled in murmurs by,
In savage yell and demon scream
Was drown'd the battle cry.

Or did'st see in later years
A labouring crew ascend,
The toiling crew and plying oars
Before the current bend.

'Twas Clark and Lewis on their way
Through heat and chilling frost,
The mountain passes to survey
And reach the western coast.

Or did'st thou hear the life and drum,
When thirty years ago
Each morning at the early dawn
They sounded reveille.

'Twas just upon a neighbouring hill
The stripes and stars were sent
Where marshalled clans and muster drill
Were heard around the tent.

Or can'st thou still recall the time,
When horsemen in their pride
Were called to saddle by the horn
O'er hill and vale to ride.

Tell us the scenes thou hast surveyed
From thy lone sentry post,
Since thy green leaves were first displayed
Or withered by the frost.

Did'st thou with grateful pleasure greet
The white man's coming tide,
Or was it to thy feelings met
That he besought the shade.

I know thou art a proud old tree,
As viewing all these Scenes
The stranger's eyes are turned to thee
While of the past he dreams.

Thy arms were kindly spread above
The Kansas Herald press,
No stronger evidence of love
Could move a human breast.

And from beneath thy shade was sent
To every distant clime
The sheet that first from Kansas went
To tell the march of time.

And on thy rugged side was nailed
The first imprinted sign
That ever was by stranger hailed
In this young busy town.

Then fare the well till after years
Shall show the busy throng
Of crowding men and rattling drays
Around thy changing home.

Thy memory shall be revered
By every Kansas man,
As long as leaves shall crown thy head
To shade us from the sun.

Cursed be the axe that first shall deal
A blow at the old elm tree,
Withered the hand that first shall wield
A weapon against thee.

We'll watch thee through the day and night,
We'll guard thee from the foe;
Our children's children have the right
To play beneath thy boughs.

DIQUE.

In 1720 a numerous caravan of Spaniards from Santa Fe came across to subjugate the tribe of Missouries, whose lands lay on the Mo. river just above the mouth of the Kansas. 2000 Indians attacked them in the night and killed all except the Priest who made his escape.

Nov. 3, 1854.

THE undersigned in behalf of the proprietors of the above named and of the most eligible points in the Territory, is located on Mobile, Fort of Stranger Creek on the Potawatimie road, from Parkville on the Missouri river to Uniontown, on the Kansas river, and at the junction of the Fort Leavenworth road. It is about 30 miles from Parkville, 15 from Leavenworth, 18 from Kansas City, and 15 miles from the Kansas river, on a high beautiful belt of prairie of about half mile in width, with a large body of good timber on each side. The advantages of the location are already known and appreciated, and many persons are now ready to build.

The location is about central between the Missouri and Kansas rivers, and with the best natural roads in the west leading to it. It is a about central to a country that is susceptible of a large and dense population, and everything points to this place as the centre of a county that will be formed, making it of necessity a county seat.

There is an abundance of lime stone rock, inexhaustible veins of stone coal in the immediate vicinity, which have been tested, and proved to be good. Added to all these there is good timber, good soil, and good water adjoining the town. There are several fine springs of clear running water and adjoining the town tract, and but a few miles west is where the old Dal and also by the principal Druggists and dealers in medicine throughout the Western States.

The town will be surveyed immediately and plats made, but no public sale of lots will take place before next spring. But in order to accommodate those who want to build this winter a few lots will be sold at private sale.

An examination of the premises, will not fail to convince anyone of the superior claims of Jacksonville. The great body of the travel from the region of country bordering on the Mo. River, from Weston down to Parkville, crossing to the valley of the Kansas must pass through this place.

We have submitted a few facts to the public, to elicit their attention. A glance at the country will afford a view, the most picturesque and lovely the eye ever rested upon. A rare chance is now offered to the poor man, the speculator, and all who want to make money. Here is the place to buy bargains.
